

Office of the Manhattan Borough President
City of New York

Proclamation

Whereas: We are proud to acknowledge those individuals and organizations that have devoted their resources to enriching our community and serving New Yorkers; and

Whereas: Vicki Fenton, Founder and President of The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation, is a true inspiration to us all with her tireless enthusiasm for serving others and her commitment to positively influencing countless children and their families; and

Whereas: The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation, dedicated to supporting disabled and underprivileged children throughout New York City, is today hosting an Honoree Fundraiser at the Vanderbilt Suites in the Met Life building; and

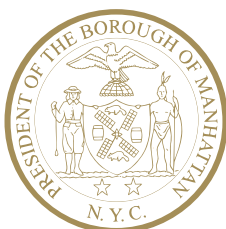

Whereas: Funds from this event will support research of pediatric cancers, diabetes, neurological and vascular medical conditions, as well as donations will be made to Downstate Medical Center, Chai Lifeline Foundation, and St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital; and

Whereas: Vicki Fenton, over her lifetime of service to our City, has improved the lives of countless people, making New York a better and brighter place for New York City children and their families; and

Whereas: Vicki Fenton has served as an example for her colleagues, friends and family of the honor and opportunity that come with service and hard work;

Now therefore, I, Scott M. Stringer, President of the Borough of Manhattan, do hereby commend Vicki Fenton and The Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation on their service to our community, and on the occasion of their 2012 Honoree Fundraiser proclaim this Monday, October 15th, 2012 as in the Borough of Manhattan.*

*“Vicki Fenton Appreciation Day”

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Borough of Manhattan to be affixed.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott M. Stringer".

Scott M. Stringer
President, Borough of Manhattan