Dear Friends,

A community is only as great as the opportunities it provides its youngest generations, and thanks to marvelous groups like the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation, Brooklyn and New York City are making tremendous strides toward ensuring that every child has the essential opportunities they deserve.

In one year, Vicki Fenton and the Eve Fenton Love-All Foundation have made quantum leaps, budding from a tiny start-up to a viable, dynamic foundation, and New York City's children are the chief beneficiaries of that metamorphosis. With Ms. Fenton's tireless work ethic and visionary energy, there is no doubt in mind that her goal of raising $20-$30 million will soon be accomplished.

I thank all of those whose diligence and charitable spirit have contributed to the expanding fortunes of this great organization, and I wish the foundation enormous luck in achieving its loftiest ambitions.

Sincerely,

Marty Markowitz
Brooklyn Borough President
